

Homes First Society – Multi-Year Accessibility Plan

Introduction

Homes First strives to meet the needs of its employees and customers with disabilities and is working hard to remove and prevent barriers to accessibility.

Our organization is committed to fulfilling our requirements under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act.

This accessibility plan outlines the steps Homes First is taking to meet those requirements established by the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation (IASR) and to improve opportunities for people with disabilities.

Our plan shows how Homes First will play its role in making Ontario an accessible province for all Ontarians.

Feedback <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upon request, be able to receive and respond to feedback from clients, individuals inquiring about HFS, our employees and members of the public who have a disability. 	Completed	01/01/15	HR/Department – HR Administrators
Homes First's Action Plan <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A process for receiving and responding to accessible feedback requests has been developed and communicated to all relevant employees. Currently Homes First can facilitate requests via the phone, fax, E-mail and mail (enlarged text available). 2. As feedback may be received by various departments and personnel at Homes First, including reception and customer service; training on how to receive and respond to accessible feedback requests has been developed and delivered based on the different positions within the company. 3. Receiving and responding to feedback will be included in all new hire orientations where the position frequently receives and responds to requests. 4. All other employees will be notified as to the internal party to whom they should direct any accessible feedback requests.
Accessible Formats and Communication Supports <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Upon request, provide accessible formats and communication supports to individuals with disabilities. 2. Notify the public of the availability of accessible formats and communication supports. 3. Where a communication support or accessible format cannot be provided, consult with the client to arrange for a suitable format as soon as possible, or explain why it cannot be provided. 	Ongoing	01/01/16	HR/Department Managers
Homes First's Action Plan

1. Develop guidelines/processes for responding to various requests. Currently, clients and the public may submit a complaint or inquiry through the company Feedback Form.
2. Train employees on guidelines/processes and ensure they are aware that requests that cannot be met immediately must be responded to stating why the request cannot be made. Training to include typical requests that may be encountered, how the request may be facilitated and will be department-specific.
3. Make public Homes First's ability to provide for or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication supports by posting a statement on the company website.

Part III - Employment Standard

Workplace Emergency Response Information <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Create and implement individualized plans to assist employees with disabilities during an emergency. 2. Obtain consent from employees with individualized plans to disclose emergency response or evacuations plans to the person responsible for assisting the employee in situations where the plan requires the assistance of a colleague. 3. Create and provide emergency information formatted in such a way that the employee with the disability can understand its contents/direction as soon as practicable following the receipt of the request and/or becoming aware of the need for an individualized plan. 4. Review the individualized plan/information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o When the employee moves to a different location in the office; o When the employee's overall accommodation needs and plan are reviewed; and o When the company reviews its general emergency response 	Ongoing (based on employee needs)	01/01/12	HR/Department policies.

Homes First's Action Plan <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Emergency planning information and directions are included in the HFS Accessibility Policy which has been provided and communicated to all employees and provided to all new hires as a part of their orientation package. 2. The process/policy used by the HR department to develop an individualized emergency response plan includes the requirement that consent is obtained from the requesting employee to disclose the contents of the plan to the individual required to provide assistance when responding to the emergency or evacuation. The process for obtaining consent also includes obtaining the acknowledgement of the employee designated to provide the assistance that the confidentiality of the individualized plan will be maintained, unless the health and safety of either party is potentially compromised. 3. Individualized emergency plans include the requirement that the plan be reviewed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o If the employee moves to another location within the office that would affect that person's ability to respond to the emergency or evacuation (the ability of the individual designated to provide assistance, where needed, will also be considered); o On a recurring timeline, to be established during the creation of the individualized emergency response plan. Factors that are taken into consideration when developing the recurring timeline (i.e. once every six (6) months, annually, etc.) include the nature and severity of the disability as well as its classification of permanent or temporary. A review of the plan will also be initiated if requested by the employee; and o When the company amends its emergency response and/or evacuation procedures.
Documented Individual Accommodation Plans <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop and implement a written process for the development of documented individual accommodation plans for employees with disabilities under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act and Ontario's Accessibility Laws. Where a request is made, work with the requesting employee to determine the suitability of the proposed accessible format/communication support.
Homes First's Action Plan <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The availability of accessible formats and communication supports has been communicated to all employees through the company's Accessibility Policy. All future employees will be made aware of their availability through the same policy which is provided with the new hire orientation package. Information that is needed to perform an employee's job is generally provided via one-on-one or group training sessions whereas information that is generally available in the workplace is typically provided in written policy format available in hardcopy or electronically. Prior to providing the information needed to perform one's job or information generally available in the workplace, employees requiring accessible formats or communication supports will be requested to notify the HR department so that alternate arrangements may be made. 2. Upon receiving a request, the HR department will work with the employee and any individuals responsible for providing the information (for example the employee's manager, supervisor or team lead) to deliver a suitable accessible format or communication support. Examples include – providing documents in larger fonts, or different formats (PDF, Word).
Information for Employees <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Communicate the company's policy on accommodating employees with disabilities to all staff members. 2. Homes First's Action Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assess IASR requirements and develop a template accommodation form and a return to work form that both address all applicable requirements. Use of these updated forms will ensure that all accommodation and RTW plans are properly recorded and retained on file. For consistency, the accommodation plan template will be used in conjunction with RTW processes.

Conclusion

Homes First is committed to the prevention, identification and removal of accessibility barriers. Homes First Society's Multi-Year Accessibility Plan will be reviewed and updated at least once every five years.
